

Privacy Policy

Small Business Centre Vasse (SBCV) protects and respects your privacy. SBCV will always protect your privacy and will not give out your sensitive information to any third parties. Personal Information SBCV requires personal information from you to process workshop/seminar registrations and to personalise your web experience with us. The information we request, may include your name, address, contact numbers, email addresses and credit card details etc... this information is essential to provide you with the best service and information. By taking part in our surveys and communications you will help us create a service that is even easier to use with products and services which are even more relevant to you and your business. We will use information gained to keep you informed about new products, services and special offers and competitions.